

The Importance of Public-Private Partnerships In Creating Sustainable Communities

APA Conference
September 12, 2008

What We Will Cover:

- Highlight the Benefits of Coordination and Partnership Between State, Local Government, and the Private Sector
- Lakewood Ranch's Commitment to Creating a Sustainable Community Model
- Sarasota County's Sustainable Policies and Programs to Engage Citizens and the Private Sector
- Century Commission's Charge to Establish a Long-Term Vision for Florida
- Identify Tools to Incorporate Sustainability into our Planning Policies and Programs

SPEAKERS

James A. Paulmann, FAICP,
Senior Vice President, WilsonMiller, Inc.

Todd Pokrywa, Vice President of Planning
Schroeder-Manatee Ranch, Inc.

Shannon Staub, Chair,
Sarasota County Board of County
Commissioners

Tim Center, Executive Director,
Century Commission

The Importance of Public-Private Partnerships in Creating Sustainable Communities