INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' COMPILATION REPORT

To the Board of Directors,
Florida Chapter of the American Planning Association, Inc.

We have compiled the accompanying statement of financial position of Florida Chapter of the American Planning Association, Inc. as of December 31, 2014, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended. We have not audited or reviewed the accompanying financial statements and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or provide any assurance about whether the financial statements are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.

Our responsibility is to conduct the compilation in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The objective of a compilation is to assist management in presenting financial information in the form of financial statements without undertaking to obtain or provide any assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements.

FLORIDA CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN PLANNING ASSOCIATION, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2014

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

The following is a summary of the more significant accounting policies and practices of Florida Chapter of the American Planning Association, Inc. (the "Association") which affect significant elements of the accompanying financial statements.

(a) General—The Florida Chapter of the American Planning Association, Inc. is organized to advance the art and science of planning that will contribute to the public well-being of Florida communities. The Association holds an annual conference, sponsors educational workshops, conducts legislative programs and provides public information to and about the planning profession.

(b) Income Taxes—The Association is generally exempt from the payment of income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. The Association files income tax return in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. The Association's income tax returns for the past three years are subject to examination by tax authorities and may change upon examination.

The Association has reviewed and evaluated the relevant technical merits of each of its tax positions in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, and determined that there are no uncertain tax positions that would have a material impact on the financial statements of the Association.

(c) Cash and Cash Equivalents—For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, amounts due from banks, and certificates of deposit with original maturities of 90 days or less.

(d) Use of Estimates—The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

(e) Basis of Accounting—The Association prepares its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting, and accordingly revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when the obligation is incurred.

(f) Basis of Presentation—The Association is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

(g) Revenue Recognition—Revenues are recognized when the earnings process is substantially complete and goods have been delivered or services performed.

(h) Advertising—The Association expenses advertising costs as incurred. There was no advertising cost for 2014.

(i) Accounts Receivable—Accounts receivables are stated at the amount management expects to collect from balances outstanding at year-end. Based on management's assessment of the credit history with customers having outstanding balances and current relationships with them, it has concluded that realization losses on balances outstanding at year-end will be immaterial. The Association estimates the allowance for doubtful accounts based on an analysis of specific customers, taking into consideration the age of past due amounts and an assessment of the customer's ability to pay.

(j) Furniture and Equipment—Furniture and equipment acquired by the Association are considered to be owned by the Association. Furniture and equipment with a value greater than $500 and an estimated useful life of at least one year are recorded at cost when purchased or at estimated fair value when contributed. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, ranging from three to seven years.

(k) Accrued Leave—The Association compensates its employees for unused vacation leave upon termination of employment. The amount of the change in accrued leave for all employees from one year to the next is reported as an expense during the current year.

(2) Concentrations of Credit Risk:

The more significant concentrations of credit risk are as follows:

(a) Demand and Time Deposits—The Association maintains demand and time deposits with several financial institutions. The Association has no policy requiring collateral to support its demand and time deposits, although deposits at the financial institutions are insured up to Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limits.

(b) Accounts Receivable— The Association's receivables are for amounts due from members. The Association has no policy requiring collateral or other security to support its receivables.

(3) Retirement Plan:

The Association has a defined contribution retirement plan that covers substantially all eligible fulltime employees. The rate of contributions is 12% of covered payroll. Retirement expense for the year ended December 31, 2014 was $18,578.

(4) Deferred Revenue:

During the year ended December 31, 2014, the Association received monies for a public policy workshop to be held in 2015. These amounts are recognized as deferred revenue at December 31, 2014.
